

Maths home learning

Your child will have a maths reasoning booklet with them. It is important to complete only the set the pages for each week as these will be the pages I mark. It also means that the children are completing the book in an order relating to what we have taught in class. Your child should not be scared by the book and they know it is not about finishing it first but about understanding what they are completing.

Thank you ☺

SPRING TERM 2

HOMework BROCHURE

To be handed in every Tuesday and set every Wednesday

Week 1

(Set 22nd February due 28th February)

Write a recount about one of your days over the half term holiday; tell me all about what you got up to and how it made you feel throughout.

1* write it in the style of a postcard

2 write 2 paragraphs about your favourite holiday day, what did you do, what did you see, what could you hear, smell and feel.

3 write 3 / 4 paragraphs about your favourite day, add in lots of details and maybe even a picture!

Week 2

(Set 29th February due 7th March)

Write a recipe card for making pancakes. You might want to have a look at a few recipes before to give you ideas on layout. Think about what needs to be included in a recipe as well as illustrations.

1* write a few instructions on how to make pancakes...we will make some in school so this will help!

2 write a recipe card, use imperative (bossy) verbs throughout as well as adverbs.

(Describe how to do the action) carefully, swiftly, gently etc.

3 add in handy hints to make your pancakes scrumptious!

Week 3

(Set 8th March due 14th March)

How exciting, I love!

This is your story title; plan a story that fits this title. It can be about anything as long as it fits the title. Think about stories you have read at home and ones we have looked at in school too. You might want to plan using a story board or story map. Include lots of details so I can see what exciting stories I have to look forward to!

Week 4

(Set 15th March due 21st March)

How exciting, I love!

Using your plan from last week, write your story so that it fits the title given to you last week.

1* write a short story with adjectives

2 write in paragraphs and use adjectives

3 use exciting sentence openers throughout

Week 5

(Set 22nd March due 28th March)

Mother's day

Write about your mum, what do you love about her, what do you enjoy doing with her, what do you like to talk to her about? These are just some of the things you might want to include in your writing.

1* write a few sentences about your Mum, maybe a poem

2 write a letter to your Mum, thank her for everything she does for you.

Wow: add in pictures/illustrations/photographs

Week 6

(Set 29th March due 4th April)

Free write week: I would like you to write in any style and about anything. I want you to show off all of your writing skills. You have all learnt so much over the last few terms in school and now is your chance to show this off!

Possible styles: diary entry, story, poem, letter, newspaper article)
