

PLANTING HOPE

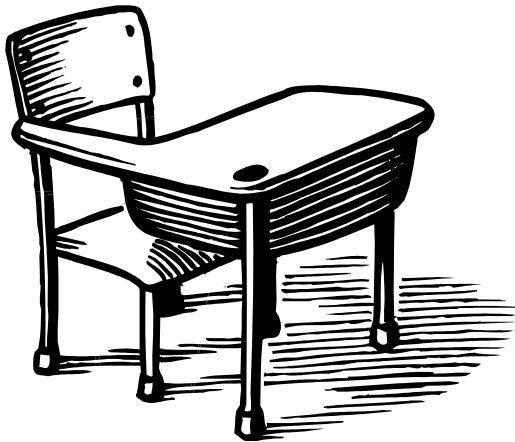

IN 1845 THOMAS JOHN BARNARDO WAS BORN.

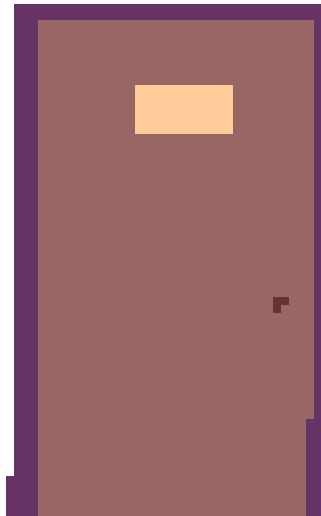

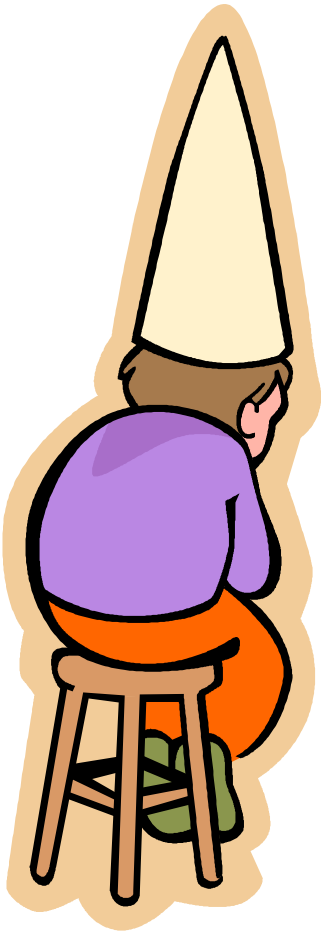

WHEN THOMAS LIVED THERE THERE WERE A LOT OF POOR PEOPLE. CHILDREN HAD TO WORK. THOMAS DID NOT THINK OF THEM.

He was lucky he did not have to work, his father paid for him to go to school.

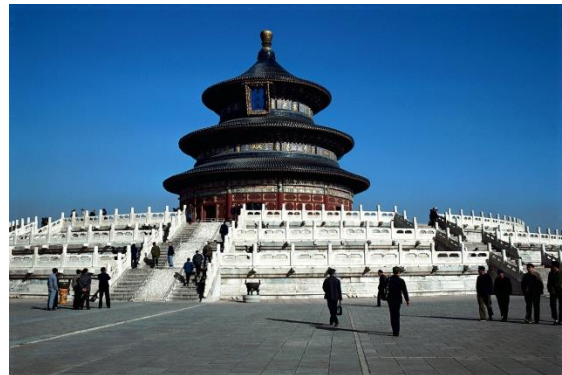

He was lazy and did not work hard and failed his exams and had to leave school at 16.

JESUS ASKED US TO HELP OUR NEIGHBOURS.

THOMAS DECIDED HE WOULD GO TO CHINA AND TEACH THE PEOPLE THERE ABOUT JESUS AND CHRISTIANITY.

IN LONDON HE STARTED TO REALLY NOTICE ALL THE POOR PEOPLE.

Some children had to live on the streets.

One night a boy called Jim Jarvis showed Dr Barnardo some children who did not have anywhere to sleep.

They were sleeping on roofs and in gutters.

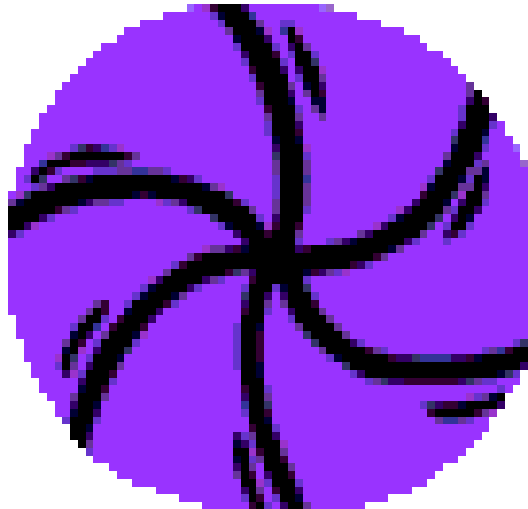

Dr Barnardo was horrified. He decided that something must be done to help them.

He opened a 'Home' for orphan boys and girls. He went out each night to find children who were sleeping outside in the cold.

BEFORE HE DIED IN 1905
DR BARNARDO OPENED 96 HOMES
AND CARED FOR OVER 8,500 CHILDREN.

WINDOW

How could you plant hope?