

Week 5: 5th December

Task: We are very busy this week rehearsing for our nativity. Keep practising your lines and the songs for our final performance!

WOW - In your home learning book, draw and label a picture of our nativity, or the character you are playing.

Children are still expected to read regularly at home.

Tasks in this booklet will be set on Wednesday each week and should be handed in the following Tuesday.

We are looking for creative ideas and excellent presentation as well as the children enjoying the activities.

Week 6: 12th December

Task: This week we have visited the pantomime 'Aladdin'.

1* - draw and label a picture of your favourite part

2* - Write a sentence to go with your picture

3* - In your own words, retell part of the story

WOW— What other pantomimes have you seen, list some of these.

These targets are expectations for the end of Year 2 and can be used to help you support your child with their home learning.

- With support, I can use a capital letter to start a simple sentence and a full stop at the end.
- In some writing, I can use a capital letter to start a simple sentence and a full stop at the end.
- In some writing, I can use a capital letter to start a simple sentence and a full stop at the end.
- When I write a question, I can use a question mark. I can use commas in lists.

Good luck, work hard and have fun.

Weekly Tasks

Take care of this leaflet as it contains all the homework tasks up until Christmas. Bring completed tasks in to school every Tuesday. A selection of work will be displayed in class, so HIGH QUALITY work is expected! Your presentation is very important but the content of your work is even more important.

Throughout this booklet, there are frequent WOW activities to challenge you, giving you extra opportunities to develop your learning should you choose to take them on!

Children are required to practise their writing targets when there is opportunity.

There are a mix of tasks; practical 'making' tasks, as well as maths, writing and science activities, to make the tasks fun and appeal to all.

Now it's time to have some fun!

Week 1: 7th November

Task: Remember, Remember the 5th of November!! We have just had bonfire night. Think about the sounds and sights of bonfire night and fireworks.

1* - draw or create a bonfire night inspired picture

2* - add words to your picture to describe the sights and sounds of bonfire night

3* - Write a few sentences about your picture.

WOW - With an adult, find out about the history of bonfire night and record some of your findings.

Week 2 14th November

Task: Next week we are going to meet 'The Jolly Postman'. He delivers letters to various fairytale characters. How many fairytale characters do you know?

1* - Draw/write a list of fairytale characters you know

2* - Write a list of fairytale characters you know. Choose your favourite and write a sentence to say why.

3* Choose one fairytale character and write a character description

WOW—draw a portrait of your character

Week 3: 21st November

Task: In maths we will be looking at money

1* - Write and draw the coins we use in England.

2* - Write and draw the coins and notes we use in England.

3* - Can you add some coins together to show different values. E.g. how many ways can you make 5p?

Week 4: 28th November

Task: The Jolly Postman delivers a letter of apology to the Three Bears. If you were Goldilocks, what would you say or do to show you were sorry?

1* Write a sentence as Goldilocks to say that you are sorry

2* Write a short/simple letter as Goldilocks to the Three Bears, saying you are sorry

3* Write a letter giving reasons for why you are sorry

WOW— set out your letter formally with the address and date at the top and best presentation!
