

The most important thing about History is understanding the past

We examine, interpret and evaluate

We pose questions

We analyse how and why the world has changed

And we are inspired and learn from those who lived before us

But most important thing about History is understanding the past

History Key Skills Progression

