

The most important thing about MFL is gaining global and cultural awareness

It instils and fosters curiosity in new languages

It develops critical thinking and expression

It gives us experiences and ideas we can take forward into a larger global marketplace

It lays the foundations for future language learning

And teaches us to respect others

But the most important thing about MFL is gaining global and cultural awareness

