

The most important thing about Computing is connecting with others

We are informed about e-safety

We are confident in digital literacy

We are masters of technology

And it helps us to see a rapid changing world through technology's eyes

But most important thing about Computing is connecting with others

Computing: Progression Skills

