

Who makes sure that children with SEN are looked after well?

The school SENDCO (Lisa Kingston) oversees the implementation on any interventions and monitors the impact of any additional support put in place as well as referring to any outside agencies when necessary. The school SENDCO liaises with class teachers regularly and is available to meet with parents to discuss individual needs.