In the late hours of Monday 26th of October 2040, a dramatic event occurred; treacherous floods poured down causing immense damage upon the city.

Floods of Norwich

On the night of Monday 26th in the city of Norwich. After months and months of horrendous, distressing flooding – as a result of the tremendous cause of climate change –the intimidating flooding force last Monday . As a result, residents of Norwich swiftly charged to the docks where the boats were. However mayhem took place when it quickly became certain that the boats leaving Norwich, didn't have the capability for everybody. As a result, this meant that numerous children and adults were being left behind; this lead to thousands of local residents fighting over countless amounts of boats and getting to protection. Zoe described it as the worst moments of her life. She was the one who was left behind. Norwich resident John Keating , who lived next door to Zoe and her family, said "None of us have seen them and all I want is for them to be re-united, "he replied with commitment .

The story so far

After her parents fled from the city of Norwich, Zoe had to focus her mind on finding her parents but first finding safety. Deep in the city, there was a wooden shed ,it has been reported that the juvenile girl found a primeval boat-which on it was the words `Lyca` which aloud her to row across the North Sea, willingly searching for her missing family; persistence to find them. Zoe told us directly that she has been asking local residents if they have seen parents/family. She says that she has spent the last 72 hours -3 days- looking for any knowledge about their whereabouts and asking locals bout them. "I have actually tried everything I can do in my power to find them. Nobody knows anything and I am terrified I won't ever see them again ."In addition Inspector David says, "I'm doing everything in my strength to find them but no luck!"
